4 New Entity Authorized Legal Representative Information

If the Beneficiary is not able to exercise signature authority over their ABLE account or chooses to establish an ABLE account but not exercise signature authority, an Authorized Legal Representative may act on the Beneficiary's behalf with respect to the account. If an Authorized Legal Representative establishes an ABLE account, the Authorized Legal Representative must self-attest/certify to the basis for acting as the Authorized Legal Representative and must also certify that there is no person with a higher priority.

The priority for opening an account as an ALR is as follows in this order: an ALR is anyone who is selected by the eligible Beneficiary with legal capacity (who has power of attorney), an individual's agent under a power of attorney, a conservator or legal guardian, a spouse, parent, sibling or grandparent, or a Social Security Administration representative payee (individual or organization). A person may self-attest/certify that they are authorized to open the ABLE account and there is no other person higher in order willing to establish the account. According to Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") guidance, the Authorized Legal Representative may neither have, nor acquire, any beneficial interest in the ABLE account during the Beneficiary's lifetime and must administer the ABLE account for the benefit of the Beneficiary. Whenever an action is required to be taken by a Beneficiary in connection with an ABLE account with an Authorized Legal Representative, it must be taken by the Beneficiary's Authorized Legal Representative acting in that capacity.
